

Potato World
Hall Of Recognition
Nominations

Potato World hosts these awards to acknowledge individuals or groups who have made a significant contribution to the potato industry in New Brunswick.

Potato World

These awards were created to acknowledge individuals or groups who have made a significant contribution to the potato industry in New Brunswick.

Farmers, those people involved in farm organizations, business persons, agrologists and scientists who have made a contribution that improved the potato industry will be considered for induction to the Potato World Hall of Recognition.

Nominations will be considered in the potato industry through local, provincial, national or international efforts in the fields of marketing, organization, production, breeding, research, policy, communications or education.

The nominations will be considered from five different groups, Potatoes NB, NB Seed Growers Assn., NB Potato Exporters Assn., and NB Institute of Agrologists as well as from the general public. Those nominated will be judged in four areas based on information received on the application form by a committee of the board of Potato World. All nominations will be held for five years with the nominees being eligible for the award each of those five years. The number of inductees each year will be no more than two.
